

Community Researcher Roles at Petworth House

Do you enjoy working in a team and love meeting people of all ages? Then this may be the role for you!

We're looking for enthusiastic members of our local community to work with us at Petworth House. In this role, you'll help us understand the different perceptions and knowledge of Petworth House within local communities, identify barriers to visiting, and engage with community members to discover topics, stories, and histories of interest for curating the collection and the programme of events.

As the programme has our local communities at its heart we are looking for people who have a good understanding of the local needs and diversity of communities surrounding Petworth House.

What skills and interests are helpful...

- Confident communication skills with the ability to talk to a wide range of people
- Enthusiastic about community engagement, arts and social research
- Recognise the importance of active listening and active learning
- Happy to work and collaborate within a team
- Ability to treat all people with respect and dignity at all times

National Trust

What you get as a Community Researcher...

- This is a paid role with a free training and development programme to support you
- Valuable transferable skills and experiences in areas of facilitation, creative planning and social action research
- Free access to Petworth House and Garden
- Support to access further development opportunities at the end of the programme

How to find out more ...

To apply or find out more about the role please see our FAQ and submission form via this link - Community Researchers FAQs and Application Process or by scanning the QR code.

